

LOT PURCHASE PROCESS

Depending on the lot you choose, the lot purchase process will be somewhat different. If you decide to build on a lot currently owned by a specific builder or contractor, you will be required to purchase and build your home with the registered owner of the lot.

If you decide to build on a lot that is not currently owned by a builder, you may put the lot on hold for a period of 10 days. To place a lot on hold, Hopewell Management Corporation must receive an executed reservation agreement form and a $10,000.00 lot hold deposit. All deposits must be paid by bank draft or certified cheque and payable to Hopewell Management Corporation. The deposit is fully refundable without interest or penalty at the time of cancellation or lot hold expiration.

LOT HOLD CONDITIONS

1. After the 10 day hold period has elapsed the lot must be returned into the inventory pool.
2. Following the release of the original hold, if the lot is still available, the same purchaser must wait 7 days to place the same lot on hold again.
3. Once a purchaser has placed a lot on hold for the second time period, the purchaser must either purchase the lot, or release it back into the inventory pool with no future opportunity to place the same lot on hold for a third time.
4. The purchaser does have the option, following the second hold period to place a different lot on hold for a 10 day hold period following the same guidelines.
5. Should a purchaser wish to move from one lot to another during the hold period, the original 10 day hold period applies to the new lot selected.
6. A lot hold can be challenged by another purchaser by providing Hopewell Management Corporation with a Lot Purchase Request and the 20% lot deposit made payable to Hopewell Management Corporation by way of certified cheque as required, at which time the Buyer with the hold must enter into a Purchase and Sale Agreement within 48 hours and provide to Hopewell Management Corporation the executed Purchase and Sale Agreement along with the 20% deposit made payable to Hopewell Management Corporation by way of certified cheque, or relinquish the lot the challenger.
